

THE BIG BUNA BASH

STORY BY Sara C. Arnold

ILLUSTRATED BY Roberta Malasomma

When Almaz makes a mistake in school, she's really embarrassed! Other kids tease her because they don't understand her Ethiopian culture. How can she use her family's traditions to make friends? She needs to host a BIG BUNA BASH!

About the Author

SARA ARNOLD is just a woman who loves coffee, especially buna! Born in the U.S., Sara immigrated to Israel in 1981, and she now teaches English in Jerusalem. She hopes this book will encourage children to understand and respect people different from themselves. The Big Buna Bash is Sara's first publication. Visit Sara online at www.saraarnoldbooks.com.

About the Illustrator

ROBERTA MALASOMMA was born in Naples, Italy. In 2013, she earned her bachelor's degree in graphic design at the Academy of Fine Arts. Using her passion for drawing, Roberta followed her dreams and started illustrating children's books. Her favorite illustrators are Beatrix Potter and Helen Oxenbury.
